Extensive Robbery-A Man's Pocket Picked of $2,550.

Mr. J. Baker, a tobacco-merchant, who resides in Ghent, Ky., had his pocket picked in Fifth-street Market, yesterday, of a wallet containing $2,550 in bank bills on the Northern and Southern Banks of Kentucky. The bulk of the amount was in $100 bills, and the balance in 20s and 10s. Mr. Baker states that he was standing in a crowd watching the street-railroad car and felt an unusual pressure about his person; that he looked around and came to the conclusion that others, like himself, were anxious to see the 'elephant." At this moment he thought of his money, and, feeling for it, found that it was gone. He immediately left information at the various station-houses, and up to a late hour last evening no discoveries were made.

Ronnery.—Yesterday evening a robbery of rather a peculiar kind occurred at No. 208 George-street. A Mrs. Briggs, who resides in Indiana, sent $550 to her sister, Mrs. Campbell, residing at the above place, to be by her loaned out. Campbell, the husband of the woman, finding this out, contrived to get the money from the drawer; and being unused to handling such large sums, at once started on a "bender." Meeting a doctor, to whom he owed $20, he "forked over," much to the surprise of the physician. Going from grocery to grocery, he liquidated bills of four or five years' standing.

He then started for the depot, gloriously drunk, to engage a passage to Texas, but, being too late for the cars, returned home. His wife, in the meantime, had discovered the theft and informed a policeman. When he returned home she resolved herself into an officer, siezed her guilty husband, who had his coat off, "tore his shirt," and otherwise damaged

He made his escape from his better half, however, but was soon captured by officer Pendery and another, who lodged him in the Ninth-street Station-house. He plead in justification that he had kept "all hands" for several years, and he wanted his pay, and when he found the money was in the house, he thought "now or t Canal-street from Grandin-street to Twelfth-street; west side of Plum-street from George-street to Seventh-street; Piatt-alley Race-street to Vine-street. Also, an ordi nance to pave with bowlders, Wetsel-alley from Elm-street to East Plum-street. Also, to advertise for proposals as follows: To build a brick culvert to pass the water under Libertystreet from Vine-street to Race-street; to build a stone arch culvert under Wade-street to a point 150 feet west of Freeman-street; to pave with bowlders, Thorp-alley, from Elm-street to Plum-street; to repair with limestone, O'Reily-alley from Lawrence-street to Davison-alley. The Board then adjourned.

BOARD OF CITY IMPROVEMENTS-YESTER DAY'S PROCEEDINGS .- The Clerk was directed to prepare and transmit to the City Council ordinances to assess special taxes for improvements upon property abutting on the following streets, viz:

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Ellen Costello was arraigned in the Police Court, yesterday, to answer the charge of assaulting Anna Costello. It appeared that Anna Costello arrived in this city some ten days ago from In-dianapolis; that her husband had preceded her; that when she arrived, she found that her husband was married to and living with the aforesaid Ellen; that she called at her residence on Cutter-street to make inquiry about the matter, when she was assaulted. Ellen was fined $5 and costs of prosecution. Costello, it will be remembered, in effecting his escape some days since while Constable White was endeavoring to arrest him. There can be no doubt but that he has been married to both parties.

FALL STYLES.—B. R. Alley, No. 41 Broadway, opposite the Broadway Hotel, has introduced a fall style of hat which is rapidly taking the place of others now in vogue. It is unequaled for style, quality and finish. Call in and get one.

OBSTRUCTING STREET-CORNERS .- Judge Lowe seems determined to break up the practice of crowds standing on the street-corners, thereby obstructing the side-walks. Seven young men, named B. Moran, W. Burges, J. Carney, J. Wageress, J. Kline, J. Hanley and D. Sulli-van, were arrested on the above charge yesterday and fined $1 and costs each.

At a meeting of St. John's (Episcopal) Congregation, held at the corner of Plum and Seventh-streets, yesterday, Bishop McIlvaine presiding, the following officers were elected: Senior Warden, E. S. Haines; Junior Warden, H. W. Derby; Vestrymen, D. T. Woodrow, Robert Mitchell, T. H. C. Allen, John W. Ellis, C. L. Avery, Alfred A. Marsh, H. P. Kennedy, C. D. Coffin.

TURNED HIS WIFE OUT.—An inhuman indi-vidual named Michael Murphy turned his wife and babe out of his house Sunday night, and locked the door. He was tried by Judge Lowe yesterday, fined 85 and costs, and sen-tenced to the City Prison for the term of three ABA fight occurred about eleven o'clock last evening at Finney's grocery, on Sycamore-street, between Third and Fourth, between a souple of persons, over a game of cards. A considerable crowd assembled, but no arrests were made.

PETTY LARCENY .- A man named Theodore Fisher was sentenced to the chain-gang for the term of two months, for stealing a pocket-book, containing $1, from Frederick Stalk, on Findlay-street.

A slight fire occurred within doors, yesterday noon, on the premises of Matthew Whilldin, a private school teacher, No. 135 West Fourth-street. The extent of the loss was the week's wash.

A man named Docelyn was arrested and contined in the Ninth-street Stationhouse last evening, charged with forging land entries, supposed to be located in the vicinity of Girardeau, Missouri. He will have a hearing in the Police Court this morning.

AMUSEMENTS.

Woon's Theater.—Another large and well-filled house was present last night to witness the "Othello" of Mr. J. K. Anderson. This sterling tragedian, by his superior and excellent rendition the leafous Moor, elicited the warmest applause from the large audience in attendance. Mr. Langdon, as the treacherous "lago," was very good. Mrs. Effie Ellistr, as the fair but, wronged. "Desdemons," won the esteem, approbation and sympathy of those present, and created new admirers of her excellent acting.

To-night will be presented one of Shakspeare's tragedies entitled Contenance, This production, from the master-mind of the Illustrious Shakspeare, has not been produced here for a number of years, and ought, as we have no doubt it will, attract an overflowing house. Mr. Anderson appears as "Calus Marcins Coriolanus," in which character we hold he will be warmly received. The farce of Our Gal. concludes the entertainment. LAW REPORT.

APPLICATION FOR AN INJUNCTION AGAINST TER CINCISNATI STREET RAILROAD COMPANT.—Nicholas Goshorn and Wife vs. The Cincinnati Street Rullroad Company.—This was a petition for an injunction and for dainages. The plaintifs allege they are the owners of a piece of ground between Mound and Cutter-streets, now covered by Ninth-street, but which they nover desilicated to the city, or in any way released their title thereto. They allege that they graded and bowdered this property, and kept it in rupair, and that defendants (the railroad company) onleved on the same, and attempted to destroy the payment, &c. They ask an injunction, and to have their damages assessed.

The court intimated that the city should be made a party, and continued the application until the 17th of next month—and further ordered that defendants should enter into a bond in the sum of $5,000, conditioned to pay all damages that might be assessed against them on the final hearing of the case. E. Mills appeared to petitioner, and Judge Gholson on the other side.

KENTON COURTY FAIR.—Notwithstanding the heavy rains in the early part of the day, and the fact that it was the first of the exhibition, a large crowd assembled on the fair grounds yesterday. We were unable to learn many of the particulare, but from what we could gather we are sure it bids fair to be one of the best in this region of the country. It is the last of the season that will take place near here, which will add to the interest felt in its success. Let these annual satherings of the farmers and mechanics be well attended. They have already added an incalculable amount to the respect in which labor is held, and their continued success will do more than his yet been done. Already we see it effect upon our young men. They no lorger rush by thousands into the "learned professions" without regard to ability for their successful prosecution. It is not now regarded as beneath the dignity of a well-educated young man to take hold of the plow when he emerges from school. Let the people interest themselves in the matter and encourage their children to do the same, and the effect will be beneficial and lasting.

A lady residing in Newport was walking KENTON COURTY FATE.-Notwithstanding

A lady residing in Newport was walking along Fourth-street in this city, a few evenings since, about dusk, and while passing over the sidewalk in front of a new building, between Scott and Madison-streets, came in contact with a ladder which had been carelessly thrown down, and broke her ankle. Builders onght to be careful about obstructing the streets unnecessarily.

COMMONWEALTHYS. D. A. POWELL,—This case, being an indictment for forgery, which has been pending since the last March term, came up for trial yeaterday. The evidence was concluded early in the afternoon, but the case was not submitted when the court adjourned, the time being occupied by the lawyers in preparing instructions. We will say nothing further about the case until the verdit t shall be rendered, when we will give the particulars.

POLICE COURT-THE SUNDAY LAW .- Henry Police Court—The Sunnay Law.—Henry Harter was yesterday arraigned before the Police Court for selling liquor on Sunday. He was defended by Charles Mooar, who plead the unconstitutionality of the ordinance against the Sunday liquor traffic. He claimed that it conflicted with State laws on the same subject, and was consequently null and void, as by the constitution, all city ordinances must be in harmony with the statutes of the State. Mr. Phelps, for the prosecution, will conclude the argument this morning. Our citizens manifest considerable feeling in the matter, and the decision of the Mayor is looked to with deep interest.

Mrs. Dean, charged with passing counterfeit noney, and who forfeited her ball some time since, became penitent and gave herself into the hands of the Sheriff again, yeaterday.

NEWPORT NEWS.

To-morrow night the City Council will To-morrow night the City Council will have another regular meeting. The report on the resolution of Mr. McGracken to expel Mr. Sellman from the office of Jallor will then come up for consideration. Quite a warm time is anticipated, and our straight-ahead, quiet Council will no doubt indulge in speech-making considerably, something, be it said to their henor, they generally omit, and in its place occupy their time in transacting business.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RE-UNION .- A re-union of the DUNDAY SURIOU. RE-UNION.—A re-union of the different Sunday schools in this city will take place next Sunday at three o'clock P. M., at the Metodist Church, on Taylor-street. Mr. H. Thane Miller and and Mr. L. H. Sargent will be present and address the children. Let everybody attend and take their children. It will encourage the cause and assist to instill into the minds of children an interest in Sabbath schools. THE NEW JAIL -Yesterday our City En gineer marked out the ground for the new jail. It is to be built on the north-west corner of the public square, and if the work comes up to the plans and specifications, as it no doubt will, we will have something that will hold the prisoners hereafter. The work will be commenced immediately, COLLAPSED A PILEE.—The improvement of the south end of Columbia-street, commenced with so much energy, collapsed just at a time when it was rondered almost impassable. Our citizons inter-ested in the matter are making complaints. Can any one gives satisfactory reason for the delay?

U. S. Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F.

This Grand Body, which has been in session several days at Baltimore, Md., adjourned to meet at Nask-ille, Tenn., on the third Monday in September, 1860. The session of Thursday evening was consumed in the action of the body on reports which had been submitted by the committee during the month.

Rep. Boyleton, of South Carolina, of the Committee on the State of the Order, submitted a report in reply to an inquity from the Grand Lodge of Ohio, to the effect that a subordinate encampment has the right to try and punish a member for words spoken in a subordinate lodge when open and during its reg-ular proceedings, provided the words spoken are offensive in themselves, or evince conduct are onensive in themselves, or evince conduct unbecoming an Odd-Fellow.

Rep. Spring, of Miss., of the Committee on Appeals, presented a report upon an appeal from the minority of the Grand Encampment of Maryland of the matters in the case of Patriarch Joseph K. Holden, deceased. of Patriarch Joseph K. Holden, deceased.
The report stated that it appeared from the paper submitted to the committee that Mount Morish Encampment No. 11 admitted to membership the deceased, and that he remained in good standing up to the time of his death. That after his death the Encampment refused to pay to his widow the amount usually allowed at the death of its members, on the ground that the Patriarch had improperly represented his age at the time of his admission, which was not discovered until after his decease. The committee reported that under the general laws of Mount Moriah Encampment, no member could be expelled, suspended, or deprived of benefits, except for non-payment of dues, without an impartial trial, and the deceased Patriarch could not have such a trial. They therefore recommended the reversal of the decision of the R. W. Grand Encampment of Maryland.

The report of the committee recommending the granting of a charter to establish a lodge Leavenworth, Kansas, was called up and adopted.

Rep. Kennedy, of Southern New York, submitted the following amendment to the second section of the 9th article of the constitution:-"Section 2. Every State, District, Territorial or Colonial Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment, having under its jurisdiction one thousand or less members in good standing, shall be enti-tled to one vote in the Grand Lodge; every State, District, Territorial or Colonial Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment, having under its jurisdiction over one thousand members in good standing, shall be entitled to two votes: and no State, District, Territorial or Colonial Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment shall have more than one Grand Representative at the same time: Provided, however, that any Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment shall be entitled to as many Grand Representatives as it may have votes, on assuming the payment of the mileage and per diem of the additional Grand Representative." Rep. Prall, of Northern New York, submitted amendments to the constitution so as to abolish the mileage and per diem of the members. To reduce the present representation tax of $75 to the former sum of $25 to each rep resentative. To furnish cards, books, odes &c., to grand and subordinate bodies at cos prices. To assess yearly all deficiency in revenue upon the membership of the respective Grand bodies. The whole to be refunded to ported upon at the next meeting of the U.S. Grand Lodge.

Rep. Mason submitted a report to charter lodge No. 3, at Santa Fe, and encampment 2, at the same place, which was read and adopted.

Rep. Dailey presented a report upon the petition of the Grand Lodge of Australias ask-ing affiliation stating that the matter must ing affiliation, stating that the matter must be left in abeyance until further information is obtained from that body. Accompaning the report was a resolution instructing the Grand Secretary to notify the Grand Sec-retary of the Grand Lodge of Australia that until the Grand Lodge of the United States has indubitable evidence of the identity of the work of the order in Victoria with that used in this jurisdiction, or is justified in commissioning a qualified brother to proceed to Australia and ascertain the actual condition of the order there, and if found favorable, t nat he be fully authorized to institute the order in Australia as an independent jurisdiction, subject only to the limitations and conditions heretofore required in the establishment of the Grand Lodge of British North America.

SEDUCTION-A FATHER'S REVENGE.-Buena Vista, Tenn., was the scene of a tragedy a few days since. Some weeks since Mr. John F. Jackson, an opulent gentleman of that village, was informed that his daughter, a lovely girl of eighteen years, had been seduced by Dr. F. M. Bunch. He forthwith sought the man who had brought diagrace upon his name, and demanded that he should repair the wrong by marrying his victim. The Dector declined at the time, and Jackson gave him three weeks to re-consider or leave the country. At the expiration of that time, Bunch still declining to heal the wounds he had inflicted, the determined parent, restive with the sense of wounded knoner and desperation, shot Bunch down in his office. He died instantly. Jackson delivered him-self into custody, and when our informant left, was in the Paris (Tennessee) Jail.—Louisvilla Courier, Sept. 27.

True felicity is when any one is as happy as to find out and follow what is the proper bent of his genius, and turn all his endeavers to exert himself according as that prompts him.
